Event.

May 20th . 7pm

Prayer events of all shapes and sizes will take place around the world during the 10 days between Ascension and Pentecost (10th - 20th May). In Durham, churches are coming together for 250 hours of non-stop, 24-7 prayer at Sanctuary 21, in the centre of the city. To find out more and book prayer slots visit our webpage www.24-7prayer.com/signup/12126a

'Thy Kingdom Come' began in 2016 when the Archbishops of Canterbury and York encouraged the whole of the Church of England to pray in the build-up to Pentecost, and it's since become an international, ecumenical movement of prayer and worship. We'll be hosting a huge 'Beacon' celebration at Durham Cathedral on Pentecost Sunday with Christians from every church and tradition, and Dave Bilbrough will be leading worship. To find out more and to book your FREE tickets visit the Durham Cathedral website www.durhamcathedral.co.uk/whatson/thy-kingdom-come-dave-bilbrough
